

Psalm 8

Em C D Em
O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!
C D Em
who hast set thy glory above the heavens.
C D Em Am
Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength
C D Em C D Em
because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.
Em C D Em
When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,
C D Em
the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;
C D
What is man, that thou art mindful of him?
Em Am
and the son of man, that thou visitest him?
C D Em
For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels
C D Em
and hast crowned him with glory and honour.
C D Em Am
Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;
C D Em
thou hast put all things under his feet:
C D Em
All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;
C D Em C D Em Am
The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.
C D Em C D Em
O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!
